

Dominique Thompson Alumni of the Year Award

This award is named in memory of Hilbert College alumna Dominique Thompson '04, who during her short time dedicated immense time and resources to the college and the greater Buffalo community. Nominated by his/her peers, the award recipient demonstrates the Franciscan values of hope, peace, service, joy, integrity, respect, compassion, and vision, as well as encompasses the true spirit of Hilbert. The recipient is active in the community and remains connected to Hilbert by giving back to the college in many ways, including volunteering at college events.
