Another Semester Kicks Off

The Fall 2011 semester has gotten off to a busy start as more students to meet one another and find ways to get involved on campus, including the annual Club Fair, a Tiki Party, a barbecue, and even a ride on the Niagara Jet Boats. Numerous events through the first weeks have helped students to meet one another and find ways to get involved on campus, including the annual Club Fair, a Tiki Party, a barbecue, and even a ride on the Niagara Jet Boats.

Taking the Lead

If you are still looking for a way to help your student find their place on campus, consider, perhaps, the Leadership Certificate Program is the place to start. Designed to be practical for even the busiest student, the Leadership Certificate Program allows students to select six workshops which fit both their schedule and their interest.

Cultural Potluck

The Buffalo Laboratory Theatre, located in the William Swan Auditorium, will present a series of events which will allow you to spend time on campus with your son or daughter (without embarrassing them too much!). Our fall season kicks off with a barbeque sponsored by the men’s lacrosse team. Chicken ($8 per rasa) or ribs ($10 per plee) are available from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. Help the team raise funds for their trip for spring training while enjoying great BBQ food.

At 1 p.m. parents can test their crime-fighting abilities with a one-hour forensic experience in which participants will help host parents for a one-hour forensic experience in which parents will have the opportunity to collect and test crime scene evidence. If you have seen CSI on television, here is your chance to try it out yourself! Please sign up in advance for the workshop by e-mailing jeanmarie@hilbert.edu. Space is limited to 20 participants.

Also at 1 p.m., the men’s soccer team will take the field against conference rival Mt. Aloysius College. Come cheer on the Hawks!

A Cultural Potluck featuring diverse dishes made by students and hosted by the Hilbert International Club is planned at 2 p.m. as part of Cultural Awareness Week. Sample dishes from around the globe.

For those who want to test their acting talents, the Buffalo Laboratory Theatre, headed by Hilbert alum and professor Taylor Cohkery, will hold an acting workshop and a look inside the workings of a professional acting career. Be prepared to take the stage! The workshop begins at 2:30 p.m. in Swan Auditorium. Advance registration is requested by e-mailing Jim Sturm.

At 3 p.m. the Lady Hawks will square off in a soccer match pitting host Hilbert against the Mounties of Mt. Aloysius College. Wear your Hilbert blue!

Later, murder is on the menu and everyone is a suspect. If you have seen CSI on television, here is your chance to try it out yourself! Please sign up in advance for the workshop by e-mailing jeanmarie@hilbert.edu. Space is limited to 20 participants.
