

Sister Adrienne Faculty / Staff Lifetime Achievement Award

This award was named in memory of Sister Adrienne, a faculty member who encompassed the spirit of Hilbert College and continuously gave back to the Hilbert community in many ways. The current or former faculty/staff recipient of this award should emulate the characteristics that Sister Adrienne exhibited while on the Hilbert campus. He/She should display integrity and leadership both in the classroom and within the Hilbert community. This individual should provide an environment that promotes lifelong learning and discovery in a truly global society. He/She should possess the Franciscan Core Values of Hope, Peace, Joy, Integrity, Vision, Respect, Service, and Compassion. These Franciscan values should be demonstrated to the students within the lessons learned at Hilbert and be evidently displayed in their interactions within their homes, neighborhoods, and workplaces. Please submit a letter expressing how the faculty/staff member you are nominating would be an ideal candidate for this award.
