

St. Francis Award for Community Service

This award goes out to a graduate who has distinguished themselves by their vast contributions of time and talent to Hilbert and/or their respective community over the course of many years of service. The recipient could be considered a role model for other Hilbert graduates – past, present and future, for their dedication to improving their community and those they serve.

Please submit a letter expressing how you and/or the graduate you are nominating would be an ideal candidate for this award.
