

Monroe County, NY

Community Education and Lecture Services

Medical Examiner Office operations are often veiled in secrecy or misunderstanding. To assist the public, representatives of the Medical Examiner's Office are available through the Monroe County Speaker's Bureau.

Through this service, lectures series for specific audiences related to issues surrounding death and dying, violence, drugs, and other issues in the community are provided.

Additionally, the Medical Examiner's Office provides limited internship programs for qualified college students.

Contact information:

Robert Zerby, Chief Medical Investigator: 585 753-5914