Re: Search Update

The search for Hilbert's fourth president has just reached a significant point. The advertising campaign officially kicked off this week with the position being posted in the online edition of a number of national publications. The postings may be found at the Chronicle of Higher Education, Inside Higher Ed, Higheredjobs.com, The Journal of Blacks in Higher Education, Hispanics in Higher Education, and Women in Higher Education. The ad includes a link to the search prospectus which may be found at <http://www.hilbert.edu/docs/default-source/default-document-library/presidential-search-profile-v2.pdf?sfvrsn=0>.

The search prospectus is in large part a result of the meetings that were held by our consultant, Dr. Kate Haley. The Hilbert College President Search Committee again wants to thank the student leaders, staff members, faculty, and trustees who participated in this process.

It is our hope that these ads, along with Dr. Haley's networking, will result in a nice pool of very qualified candidates for the position. I encourage you to consider nominating persons whom you think would add to the quality of that pool.

The Search Committee also continues to welcome written comments regarding individual perspectives on the presidency and the challenges facing the college. Please send comments, questions, suggestions or written perspectives to me and/or Kate Haley. Our email addresses are below.
