FACULTY NEWS

Edward V. Qualey (CJ '74) retired from the New York State Police as a supervisor. He was an Associate Professor and the Chair of the Criminal Justice Studies Division at Hilbert College. Ed received a Hero Award for Lifetime Achievement from the 100 Club of Buffalo at the Buffalo Club on March 3, 2017. Ed was recognized at Hilbert's 2016 Commencement and awarded an Honorary Doctorate Degree in Public Service for his over 30 years work with the Criminal Justice Program.

Richard V. Qualey (CJ '88) is a Senior Investigator and 26 year veteran with the New York State Police and will receive a Service to Law Enforcement Award from the Erie County Law Enforcement Foundation on May 18, 2017. Richard is also an adjunct instructor in Criminal Justice Program at Hilbert.

Students Travel to Washington DC

Mark Paoni and Dan Culver took 8 students from Criminal Justice, Forensic Science, Psychology, and Computer Security to Washington, DC as part of the CJ/FS Association annual trip. They saw the monuments, Smithsonian sites, and had a private tour of the Fallen Law Officers Memorial. These club members have earned this trip through fund raising and their philanthropic activities both on and off campus. The adventure began on Thursday, April 20th and they returned on Sunday, but the memories will last a lifetime.
