Description:

Palestra Group International has developed a one day firearms trafficking Investigations course designed to assist units conducting firearms related cases with the development of targets, use of confidential informants, utilization of undercover operators, operational planning and case development beyond firearms.

This course has been developed by active undercover officers conducting multiple firearms purchases to include ghost guns and defaced faced weapons linked to Firearm and Drug Trafficking Organizations.

Because of the inherently dangerous nature of illegal firearm purchases the course covers officer safety issues and pitfalls encountered with these types of investigations.

Topics covered:

- Case development
- Confidential informant management
- Issues specific to undercover purchases
- Ghost guns "Operation Ghost Busters"
- Blank firing and movie prop guns
- Trademarked green gas guns
- Assault Rifle classifications
- Operational planning
